

Last night, Rep. Bruce Braley (D-Iowa) spoke on the floor of the House of Representatives to emphasize Iowa's need for additional disaster relief funding.

Washington, DC - Last night, Rep. Bruce Braley (D-Iowa) spoke on the floor of the House of Representatives to emphasize Iowa's need for additional disaster relief funding.

Braley discussed the magnitude of this year's floods and tornadoes, as well as the need to pass additional disaster relief for Iowa. He also pressed the Administration to distribute all available disaster relief funds to Iowa as quickly as possible.

Watch Video of Braley's Statement here:

http://www.braley.house.gov/index.php?option=com_content&task=view&id=220&Itemid=1